DECLARATION SUITABLE FOR TRAVELING:

Passengers who register for the trip accept the responsibility of being in good health and affirm that they can walk and travel without hindrance. Because many of the places are not accessible to people with disabilities, the trip is not recommended for those passengers who need oxygen, wheelchairs, or other outpatient assistance.

PASSPORT INFORMATION, CONFIRMATION OF ITINERARY:

You must send us a copy of your passport at the time of booking or no later than 12/31/19. Any change in the names of the passengers that derive from error on the part of the passenger, will generate additional charges according to the conditions of the airline and the terrestrial service providers. Approximately 90 days before your trip we will reconfirm the itinerary and your information to make the trip checkin. Discrepancies in the information or if you do not show up for your trip may result in additional charges, delays in receiving your documents, or may deny you travel.

PRICE INCREASES:

Prices are subject to change due to currency fluctuations, increased fuel expenses, government fees and increased charges or circumstances beyond our control.

AERIAL TICKETS:

Air tickets will be issued with the airline that allows us to maintain the agreed prices, even if that means that we can not guarantee the most direct route to the destination. Once issued, no changes or refunds are allowed.

All flights are subject to change without notice by the airlines. TROTARINCONES USA is not responsible for changes or delays of flights, loss of luggage, excess baggage, additional expenses (food, personal items, purchases ...), nor is any responsibility for payment of government or tourist fees that have to pay customers at destination.

DATE OF VALIDITY:

This program is valid until the completion of the trip, always complying with the schedule and dates of the Payment Schedule described above.
